

His Essence

2: His Essence

The inner aspects of your Dream Man—his values, beliefs, and life experiences—make up who he is and how he lives in the world. His essence is what drives him when he makes decisions, runs his affairs, and builds his relationships. His essence is what you respect when you get to know who he really is inside, what motivates him, and what he cares about most deeply. This is a core part of your Dream Man story. What kind of man do you want to live and play with, respect, admire, adore, and love?

His Values and Our Values (section 1 of 4)

I fell in love with my Dream Man because his highest values are honesty, loyalty and generosity (honesty, integrity, loyalty, responsibility, generosity, compassion, trust, collaboration, enthusiasm, kindness, playfulness, security, adventurousness, commitment, learning, openness, sharing, supportiveness, tolerance, forgiveness, etc.).

One of his deepest beliefs is that we should live each day to the fullest

- ♥ we should live each day to the fullest
- ♥ contributing to the community is important
- ♥ he has a calling in life and a desire to fulfill it
- ♥ curiosity and lifelong learning are an important part of life
- ♥ family is the center of life
- ♥ contributing to and being involved in our (church, temple, faith, etc.) is a major part of our life
- ♥ we should care for each other and other people

... which means a lot to me because (your own answer) ...

I love learning and living life

It's also great that we...

share political perspectives

- ♥ share common political perspectives
- ♥ are both (liberal, conservative, independent, green) in our political views
- ♥ are comfortable having diverse political views
- ♥ don't really care about politics

...because I like to have amicable discussions about current affairs (have amicable discussions about current affairs, be on the same page about issues, lightly debate our perspectives, debate our perspectives, talk about more meaningful topics, etc.).
